YOUR PRIVACY

The Privacy Act 1988 requires us to make the following disclosure before collecting personal information about you:

- We collect personal information in order to provide our broking services including assistance with insurance claims. We will ask you to supply personal information on this form so we can assist you to submit your insurance claim and have it considered by the insurer. We will disclose this information to the insurer for this purpose.
- If the personal information is not provided, the insurer may not be able to assess and pay the claim and we may not be able to assist with your claim.
- We and the insurer may disclose the personal information to other people involved in reviewing the claim, including reinsurers, other insurance intermediaries, the insurer’s advisors such as loss adjusters, lawyers and accountants, and other parties involved in the claims handling process.
- Your information will be disclosed to organisations overseas if your policy is underwritten by an overseas insurer.
- By signing this form, you consent to us and the parties mentioned above collecting, using and disclosing personal and sensitive information about you for the purposes described above. You understand that any personal and sensitive information disclosed to organisations located overseas may not be protected in the same way as it is in Australia. Even though we have not control over how the information will be used and disclosed, you consent to us disclosing your personal and sensitive information to those overseas organisations for the purposes described above.

Further information about how to access the personal information we hold about, have it updated or corrected or how to make a complaint about how your personal information is in our Privacy Policy on our website: maxton.com.au
